

VCR - What Can I do with my Fleece Workshop

Sunday 17th May 10am – 4pm.

Jingliberry Farm 1051 Sugarloaf Creek Road, Sugarloaf Creek 3658

“What can I do with my fleece” you ask? A very important question which this workshop aims to answer.

Jeanette Manning, from Jingliberry Farm Alpacas, is convening this very informative workshop. Jeanette has many years’ experience breeding alpacas and producing end product from alpaca fibre. She has experience selling alpaca product via a retail outlet as well as through craft and farmers markets.

Jeanette will be joined by other passionate people who are value-adding and producing end product. You will be able to watch & learn from people spinning, weaving and felting with alpaca fibre.

There will also be demonstrations on “How to prepare your fleece” to send off to a mini-mill for processing along with information on potential buyers for your raw fleece.

Cost : AAA Members - $20 per person or $30 for two Members from the same family.

Non-AAA Members - $45 per person or $80 for two non-members from the same family.

Registration: Closes Sunday 10th May 2026.

- AAA Members - via e-alpaca.
- Non-members – Jeanette Manning (quambyparkalpacas@gmail.com) for instructions on how to register as a guest on e-alpaca.

BYO: Chair, Lunch & a fleece

Don’t delay – register today